Sold 3,112 Pairs of Shoes 3,112 Sold

BRADBURY, in looking over his books the other day, noted the fact (surprisingly) that in his ELEVEN MONTHS in the CUT PRICE SHOE BUSINESS, he sold three thousand one hundred and twelve pairs of shoes. That is PROOF of the POPULARITY of the brands, quality, style and price, that he carries in stock. We hope that in the next eleven months we will double the above figure, and there's no reason why we shouldn't, for we live right up to what we say either in the newspapers or otherwise.

NEWSPAPER HISTORY

The Rockland Gazette was established in 1846. In 1874 the Courier was established, and consolidated with the Gazette in 1882. The Free Press was established in 1885, and in 1891 changed its name to the Tribune. These papers consolidated March 17, 1897.

If money be not thy servant, it will be thy master.—Bacon.

Belfast Journal: J. T. Lamb of Lincolnville, when a caller at the Knox mill in Camden the other day, said that he was the first man to spin yarn in the mill in 1862. The yarn was of the same quality as the yarn of today. He found there had been some remarkable changes and a wonderful growth in the half century that had elapsed.

Minnesota Democrats in state convention Thursday voted to send a full delegation of 24 delegates to the Baltimore convention with instructions to vote for Woodrow Wilson. It was agreed, however, that whenever, in the opinion of two-thirds of the delegation, Wilson's nomination is impossible the vote may be thrown to another candidate. The attempt to stampede the convention for Bryan did not materialize.

Champ Clark received the unqualified endorsement of the West Virginia Democracy Thursday. In state convention the six delegates at large were instructed to vote for him at Baltimore as long as there was any hope of his nomination. At district conventions earlier in the week, Clark had received six instructed delegates, two of which were favorable to him, and two were uninstructed, but were said to favor Gov. Harmon of Ohio.

The alewife fishery at Damariscotta has not been closed for the season. This has been a very successful year. Nickerson has had 4,000 barrels and 150,000 have been sold at $4.50 per thousand on orders. The town of Newcastle and Nobleboro will clean up about $200,000 apiece. The weather has been so abominable that countless fish never entered the stream at all. With warm weather the catch would have been a tremendous one. Messrs. Mulligan and Carney have looked after the business very carefully. A motor boat was kept patrolling the bay every night, reducing poaching to a minimum.—Damariscotta Herald.

Massachusetts proposes to do its share toward providing good roads and the bill for the same has been passed by the legislature and signed by Gov. Fox. The measure provides $5,000,000 for the construction of highways and it is also provided that not more than $1,000,000 of the amount shall be expended in any single year between now and 1917, by which time it is expected to complete the expenditure, thus giving a million a year for new roads. The state receives in excess of half a million annually from the registration fees of automobiles, a sum that will increase rather than diminish in the future. It is estimated that this amount will be sufficient to maintain the roads after they are built.

Twin wireless stations to communicate with London will be built along the New Jersey coast within a year, according to an announcement made last week by the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company of America. The first station will be erected within nine months near Belmar, N. J. The second will be erected at Toms River or Barnegat and will be tuned to a key different from the first so that messages may be received and sent simultaneously without interference. The distance is 3,100 miles and the estimated cost will be $750,000 each. The announcement also states that options have been obtained upon similar sites at San Francisco and Honolulu and that it is planned to construct a plant in the Philippine Islands which will communicate directly with Honolulu. The company would thus be enabled to send messages from London to the Philippines by way of the United States, relaying the messages by land wires from the Jersey coast to San Francisco.

BURLEIGH IN HANCOCK

The friends of ex-Gov. Burleigh, who appears to be the leading candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, are greatly pleased over the progress of his canvass during the past week or ten days in all sections of the state. In another column we reprint a clipping from the Rockland Courier-Gazette, one of the leading and most carefully edited papers in Maine, which expresses the conviction that Mr. Burleigh will surely be nominated. It is needless to add that the outlook in Hancock county is favorable to the popular ex-governor, as it is in other sections of the state. Maine cannot do better than to send this tried and true Congressman back to Washington.—Ellsworth American.

SEES HAINES VICTORY

Occupants of the Haines hand-wagon are increasing in number every day. It probably won't be unanimous, but indications point to an overwhelming majority for William T. Haines at the primary as the Republican candidate for governor. And more than that, he's going to be elected, too.—Ellsworth American.

PATTANGALL IS FRANK

In Discussing Rumor That He was to be Appointed Chief Justice.

"I am not a candidate for the chief justiceship and if I were, Gov. Plaisted would not appoint me," remarked Attorney General Pattangall Tuesday when he was asked as to the foundation for the story that he was slated to succeed Chief Justice Whitehouse. "That is simply a repetition of the proposition that as soon as Senator Frye died I would be a candidate for the United States Senatorship; and of the proposition that Washington county was put into the Third District so that I could be a candidate for Congress. I am a candidate for just one office—re-election as attorney general. Not only am I not a candidate for the position of chief justice, but I am not a candidate for any other place on the bench.

"I know that I am not fitted for such a place either by legal attainments or temperament and I am satisfied that if I didn't happen to be cognizant of these two facts, Gov. Plaisted would be. I am not a candidate for the Chief Justiceship or any other judicial office and shall not be after Gov. Plaisted's reelection."

FORMER CAMDEN PASTOR

Rev. Dr. Preble is Led Only in Continuous Baptist Service by Dr. Newcombe of Thomaston.

Rev. Fred M. Preble, D. D., on Sunday June 2, began his 15th year of his notable pastorate with the Court Street Baptist church in Auburn. Only one Baptist pastor in the state now ranks him in continuous service with a single church.—Dr. Newcombe of Thomaston. In noticing the anniversary the Lewiston Journal has these words of just appreciation:

"Rev. Fred M. Preble, D. D., minister at the Court Street Baptist church, Auburn, completed the fourteenth year of his pastorate June 2, 23 years and during that time has held two pastorate. He is a native of Chesterfield, Me., a graduate of Colby College in the class of 1881 and of Newton Theological School in 1884. For over nine years he was pastor of the Baptist church at Camden, resigning to come to Auburn. Since he came to Auburn, the Court Street church has been freed from its debt and numerous repairs and improvements have been made on the edifice. At the recent annual meeting of the church, it was stated that all bills were paid and there was a substantial cash balance. The church membership is the largest ever and the attendance at Sunday school is about double what it was before Dr. Preble took charge of the church. In the city at large, Dr. Preble has a wide acquaintance; in fact, few local clergymen were ever better known in the community. He is frequently called upon to speak at local affairs and out of the city. He is president of the Lewiston Children's Home and a former president of the Maine Baptist Convention, the Maine Baptist Education Society and the Newton Theological Alumni Association."

Many explanations have been given of curious signboards for inns. The Goat and Compasses is supposed to be a corruption of a motto set up over inns during the Puritan period. "Good encompasses" is a bag of Nails of "Hatcham." Why Not and Dew Drop Inn are described as invitations to the wayfarer; Bird in Hand and Last House, or Final, suggestions that he should not waste his opportunities to buy beer.

The Bull and Mouth is said to be a corruption of Bouloune Mouth, captured by Henry VIII. Bull and Gate, it is suggested, may possibly be a similar vulgarism for Bouloune Gate. Great battles fought and fortresses taken are commemorated by Gibraltar, Waterloo, Battle of the Nile, and Trafalgar. Admirals range from Blake to Napier, Generals from Marlborough to Wellington—Wellington, Nelson, and Keppel being the most common. It is surprising how many of the Nelson inns are buildings three or four centuries old, "showing that the inn-keeper was prepared to sacrifice the sign under which he had hitherto done business and trusted to make a new reputation under the aegis of the popular hero." General Wolfe finds special remembrance in his own birthplace Westerham; but Sir Walter Raleigh has been quite overlooked at Mitcham, in spite of the fact that he was the founder of its leading manufacture.—Westminster Gazette.

It is now well known that not more than one case of rheumatism in ten requires any internal treatment whatever. All that is needed is a friction application of Chamberlain's Liniment and massaging the parts at each application. Try it and see how quickly it will relieve the pain and soreness. Sold by Norcross Drug Store, Rockland, and McDonald's Drug Store, Thomaston.

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

Old-fashioned poetry, but choicely good.
—Isaac Walton.

The British Soldier in China
Last night among his fellow-roughs
He jested, quaff'd and swore:
A drunken private of the Bulls,
Who never looked before
To-day, beneath the foeman's frown,
Ambassador from Britain's crown,
And type of all her race.

Poor, reckless, rude, low-born, untaught,
Bewildered, and alone,
A heart, with English instinct fraught,
He yet can call his own,
Ay! tear his body limb from limb;
Bring cord, or axe, or flame—
He only knows, that not through him
Shall England come to shame.

Far Kentish hopfields round him seem'd
Like dreams to come and go;
Bright leagues of cherry-blossom gleam'd,
One sheet of living snow;
The smoke above his father's door
In gray soft eddies hung—
Must he then watch it rise no more,
Dream'd by himself, so young?

Yes, Honour calls!—with strength like steel
He put the vision by;
Let dusky Indians wring and kneel;
An English lad must die!
And thus, with eyes that would not shrink,
With knee to man unbent,
Unflinching on its dreadful brink
To his red grave he went.

Vain, mightiest fleets of iron framed;
Vain, those all-shattering guns;
Unless proud England keep, unshamed,
The strong heart of her sons!
So, let his name through Europe ring—
A man of mean estate
Who died, as true as Sparta's king,
Because his soul was great.—E. H. Doyle.

CIRCULATION AFFIDAVIT

Rockland, June 11, 1912.
Personally appeared, Neil S. Perry, who on oath declares that he is publisher of the issue of The Courier-Gazette of June 11, 1912, there was printed a total of 4,661 copies before me:
J. W. CROCKER
Notary Public.

Last week for enrollment. It makes voting easy at the primaries next Monday.

Before Judge Hurley yesterday F. H. Whitney was fined $70 and costs for keeping open shop on Sunday. Mr. Whitney appealed.

The heavy frost yesterday morning was but another freak of a freaky spring. It is reported to have done considerable damage to the early crops.

In surrounding towns, where enrollment is necessary, there is a grand scramble to get on the lists before next Monday. Rockland voters are still a bit tardy, but many enrollment blanks will probably be filled out in the next four days.

The memorial to Rockland's soldiers and sailors is now virtually completed and will be dedicated next Monday under the Grand Army ritual. Edwin Libby Post, G. A. R., next to all veterans of the Civil War in Knox county a cordial invitation to unite with them in the dedication services.

The work of converting the Knox Registry of Deeds into a fireproof compartment is now underway, steel ceiling, steel walls, steel book-cases and even desks and tables of steel are being provided. The task is expected to occupy about 15 days. All these years Knox county has been taking a grave risk, and this improvement is a step in the right direction.

A four-pound cannon ball, ploughed up last week on the premises of Nelson P. Clough, near Oakland found its way to The Courier-Gazette office yesterday, thanks to W. C. Lufkin, who knows our precinct for such things. Some years ago similar cannon balls were found near Oakland by Albert F. Humphrey and the late Judson Wooster. Presumably the missiles are relics of the War of 1812. The cannon ball is about the size of a baseball and is much rusted.

There was a hearing in police court yesterday on the libel of Joseph Cohen, Willow street. The libel was claimed by Joseph Dondis, who says that he has severed his connection with the Knox Bottling Works since the recent seizure. The state was unable to show conclusively that the libel was intended for illegal sale, and Judge Hurley ordered them returned with the proviso that Mr. Dondis ship them back to Massachusetts at once. He signified his intention of complying, and furnished bonds in the sum of $500.

Next Friday is Flag Day, and an appeal for its fitting observance is made by the American Flag Association, an organization of individuals and flag committees from the patriotic societies in the United States formed in 1897 "to promote reverence for and prevent the desecration of the Flag of our Country." Many of our citizens possess flags and there is certainly no better occasion for their display than the anniversary which comes next Friday—the 135th anniversary of the adoption of the stars and stripes as the flag of our country. In many towns the schools hold fitting observances, and pupils are required to formally salute the flag. Rockland should not—and will not—let the day pass unheeded.

CONVENTIONS ARE NEARING

Republican National Committee Has Seated All Taft Delegates Thus Far—The Democratic Outlook.

The conflict between the Taft and Roosevelt factions in the Republican national committee grows hotter and hotter as the seating of contested delegates proceeds. Last week 38 Taft delegates were seated, and the Indiana and Kentucky cases were being heard yesterday, after the committee by a vote of 38 to 13 had defeated the Roosevelt proposition to consider the contest in the Fourth California District.

Both sides are still claiming that they will have a majority in the convention.

The Democratic Status

All of the 1094 delegates to the Democratic national convention have been chosen, except eight in Vermont and six in Hawaii. The Vermont delegates will be elected in state convention today and will probably be uninstructed. The Hawaiian delegates, it is claimed, will be for Champ Clark.

Under the two-thirds rule, which is a tradition of Democratic national conventions, 729 votes will be necessary to nominate if all the delegates are seated. Champ Clark leads but he is far from having a two-thirds majority. The Boston Globe's tabulation gives these totals:

Clark, 370; Wilson, 281; Underwood, 86; Harmon, 53; Gov. Marshall of Indiana, 30; Gov. Baldwin of Connecticut, 14; Gov. Burke of North Dakota, 10; uninstructed and uncommitted, classed as "doubtful," 230; yet to be elected, 14.

The figures of the Clark and Wilson managers are widely in their totals from this tabulation, but the discrepancies are largely due to their assigning uninstructed delegates to claims of preference. The Clark side claims the 36 votes of Massachusetts which the Globe classes as doubtful. The delegation is largely pledged to Gov. Foss, while Clark defeated Wilson in the preferential vote of the state, in which Foss did not figure.

For Gov. Wilson 368 delegates are claimed by his managers. But this includes 20 from Ohio instructed for Harmon under the unit rule, 8 from New Hampshire instructed for Clark, 15 of the uninstructed delegation from Michigan, 12 from Virginia, whose delegation is uninstructed, but said to have Underwood leanings, and delegates from several Southern states whose personal preference is undoubtedly Wilson, but who are not instructed for him.

No indication has been given of how the New York delegation of 90 Mayor Gaynor of New York a complimentary vote until the balloting becomes critical. The Massachusetts delegation isn't bound to Champ Clark by any very strong ties, and, if it doesn't know whether it should vote for him on the first ballot or Gov. Foss, Connecticut's 14 votes for Gov. Baldwin will doubtless not be wasted on him when the decisive ballot arrives.

Clark delegates were elected in Rhode Island and New Hampshire state convention instructed for Clark, though a number of the delegates are said to be for Wilson. The Maine delegation of 12 is uninstructed and is said to be split in preference.

The Vermont delegation of six, which will be the last to be chosen, will probably not be instructed.

The total New England delegation numbers 86; with New York 176; and practically will be free to act as expediency dictates after the first ballot, which is bound to be indecisive. In case of a deadlock the united vote might hold the balance of power. Earlier in the season there was talk of a combination of New York and New England, but it was put aside when the Clark boom arrived. If it is seen that the Speaker is not likely to be the nominee that alliance may yet be made.

Few contests over seats will disturb the pre-convention meeting of the Democratic National Committee. Protests against the application of the unit rule in Ohio are announced by the Wilson managers and in Minnesota, where the same time-honored regulation was brought to bear to get a solid delegation for Gov. Wilson, the Bryan-Clark combination threatens a contest. The District of Columbia convention split and two sets of delegates were elected, one for Clark, the other uninstructed. The six delegates from Alaska are also contested.

The name of President Taft will be presented to the Chicago convention by Warren G. Harding, former lieutenant governor of Ohio.

M. A. Dougherty of Lancaster, Ohio will place Harmon's name before the National Democratic convention for the nomination for the Presidency.

MADE A BIG BLAZE

Limerock Hall and Residence of Fred N. Burrows Burned Last Night.

Fire at 12:30 this morning destroyed the Limerock hall building at the head of Limerock street and residence of Fred N. Burrows, next south on the Old County road. The fire is said to have started in the lower part of the Limerock hall building, which was for many years used as blacksmith and wheelwright shop by the late George S. Rackliffe. Of late its only use had been as a storage for carriages by H. F. Hix. Such headway had the fire gained that it was impossible to get near to the structure or to save any furniture from the Burrows residence, which caught about the same time that the fire was discovered by Miss Lizzie McIntosh, who lives there.

The flames made a vivid spectacle in the western sky, and gave no small concern to the neighbors, whose houses were threatened. One other house caught, but prompt efforts saved it.

The Limerock hall building represents a loss of about $1500, and was insured for $400. The loss on Mr. Hix's carriages could not be learned this morning.

The loss incurred by the burning of the Burrows house and contents is estimated at $1500, and is nearly covered by insurance.

There seems to be no other explanation of the fire than that it was incendiary.

FROM STEAM TO TROLLEY

Limerock Railroad First in Maine to Make That Change.

Some weeks ago The Courier-Gazette announced that a portion of the Limerock Railroad would be transformed into a trolley line. Further details as to the electrification are contained in the following dispatch from our Augusta correspondent:

"The first steam railroad in Maine to change its motive power from steam to electricity will be the Limerock railroad, which operates 11.30 miles of track, including main line and terminals in Rockland and vicinity. The new energy will operate, not only the railroad, but also the machinery at the lime quarries, kilns and wharves. That portion of the Maine Central yard in Rockland used by the Limerock railroad which includes 1.7 miles of track will also be electrified."

"The electricity will be furnished by the Rockland, Thomaston & Camden railway, which recently closed a 20-year contract with the Central Maine Power Co."

"The Central Maine Power Company, whose developments are largely in Kennebec and Somerset counties on Kennebec waters, will erect a 40-mile pole line across country to Rockland, and, incidentally improve the opportunity to run a second high tension line into Augusta. The main line to Rockland will start at the Fort Halifax station in Waterville and pass through North and East Vassalboro, South China, Weeks Mills, Windorsville, Coopers Mills, North Waldoboro and Warren, where it will connect with the line of the Rockland, Thomaston & Camden Street Railway. At Coopers' Mills a branch line will be run back to Togus and there connect with another line already in operation. This new line, with that already running from Waterville to Augusta, direct, will give unusual service here."

OSCAR H. EMERY

Candidate for County Attorney at the Primary Nomination, Monday, June 17, Issues the Following Letter to the Democratic Voters.

Camden, Me., June 10, 1912.

We have our first Primary Nomination Monday, June 17, to nominate candidates for the Party ticket for our September election.

There would seem to be no good reason why a new man, free from factional fights, progressive and able to fulfill the duties of County Attorney, should not be nominated. It surely would infuse new blood into the contest, and have a tendency to insure success at the election. It is what the party needs.

The question undoubtedly is, is there an available new man, who would add strength to the ticket, if nominated? I quote from my home paper as follows: "Post Commander, George F. Wentworth, who presided at the Memorial Day services, then introduced the speaker of the evening, Oscar H. Emery of this place. During Mr. Emery's residence here, people have found him pleasant to meet and a bright and capable attorney, but this was the first opportunity to see and hear him as a public speaker. His address Thursday evening marks him as an orator of ability, a fluent speaker and a clear thinker."

This may help you to decide whether I measure up to what a new man should bring the party. If I do, I ask the Democrats of Knox county to support me at the Primary Nomination, June 17.

Oscar H. Emery.

Attention Voters!

A Statement By W. O. Norwood of Hope, Republican Candidate For Sheriff in the Primaries To Be Held June 17th, 1912

I am a candidate in the Primaries for the nomination for the high office of Sheriff of Knox county, and as such I desire to make a few statements pertinent to my candidacy.

I am talking to YOU, Mr. Voter.

This year for the first time in the history of Knox county politics, each voter has an opportunity to participate in the direct nominations of the county officials.

This means that YOU, Mr. Voter, have as much to say as to who shall be nominated for Sheriff on June 17th, as ANY OTHER MAN!

YOU NEVER HAD THIS OPPORTUNITY BEFORE!

This means that if YOU APPRECIATE THE IMPORTANCE OF THE Primaries, and turn out on June 17th, and DO YOUR DUTY, that YOU can say WHO WILL ENFORCE YOUR LAWS!

How many times have YOU said "Politics is Rotten Business?"

WHY DID YOU SAY THAT?

Because the rank and file—the hard working, self-respecting backbone of our county HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH POLITICS.

YOU, MR. LOBSTER FISHERMAN, pulling your traps in the early dawn—YOU, MR. FARMER, working from sunrise to sunset in productive, honest toil—YOU, MR. BUSINESS MAN, conducting your business diligently and honorably—YOU, MR. PREACHER, trying to raise the moral tone of your community—YOU, MR. DOCTOR, ministering to the sick, the infirm, the aged—YOU, MR. LABORER, giving an honest day's work for a daily wage. ALL OF YOU, I say, were living busy, cleanly lives, and KEEPING YOUR HANDS CLEAN!

And none of YOU were politicians!

And that's why YOUR HANDS WERE CLEAN!

And that's why "POLITICS WAS ROTTEN BUSINESS!"

Because "Politics" was run by "Politicians!"

AND NOW—on June 17th, YOUR CHANCE HAS COME!

Do I make it plain to YOU, MR. VOTER?

Do I make it plain to YOU that on June 17th, YOU have a chance to CHOOSE FOR YOURSELF for the first time in the Political Game, whom YOU want for YOUR SHERIFF?

Are YOU going to let the FIRST CHANCE YOU HAVE EVER HAD to say who will administer the law as it SHOULD BE ADMINISTERED, go by?

I don't believe you are!

I am out to WIN! The office of Sheriff of Knox county is an honorable office;—the desire to be Sheriff of Knox county is an honorable ambition.

If I win the nomination in the Primaries I will make an aggressive, hard fought campaign, and if I am beaten the man who beats me will at least know he's been in a fight.

But—I will not be beaten!

But—I can only win with YOUR aid, Mr. Voter,—with the aid and support of such men as YOU who stand for the best element in YOUR community!

And I ask your aid, particularly in the Primaries, BECAUSE I KNOW THAT IF I AM NOMINATED IN THE PRIMARIES, I CAN WIN IN THE ELECTION IN SEPTEMBER!

I want to talk to YOU a moment about the appointment of Deputy Sheriffs. It has been the custom for years for the Sheriff to pick out his deputies with no object in view except to build up a political machine for himself.

I have other views of this matter.

I believe that the Deputy Sheriffs should be as much THE CHOICE OF THE PEOPLE, as the Sheriff himself!

No chain is stronger than its weakest link. NO SHERIFF IS STRONGER THAN HIS WEAKEST DEPUTY!

If I am nominated and elected, Mr. Voter, I WANT YOU TO PICK OUT MY DEPUTIES!

By the above statement I mean THIS:

Write me fully and freely whom YOU would like to have appointed Deputy Sheriff from YOUR section of Knox county, and the man whom the majority of the voters of YOUR section endorse, I will appoint.

Can I be fairer than that?

MY PLATFORM

In my opinion no candidate for the high office of Sheriff of Knox county should go into the Primaries without first expressing to the voters the platform upon which he stands.

My platform can be summed up in a very few words:

I STAND FOR THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAW AS IT IS FOUND IN THE STATUTES, and to do my whole duty as it is given me to see it!

Simple little platform, is it not?

But in the last twelve years have YOU, Mr. Voter, seen it lived up to?

A WORD ABOUT MY CAMPAIGN

I stand pledged to no man, save for the pledges I have made in this article. These advertisements are paid for out of my own pocket, and if I lose, trying to make the high office of the Sheriff of Knox county CLEAN,—I shall consider it money well spent. I have made no promises. No law-breaker will be immune. No "SPEAK-EASY" has any strings on me.

TO THE WIVES, DAUGHTERS AND SISTERS OF THE VOTERS OF KNOX COUNTY:

YOU,—YOU WOMEN,—know better than anyone else what the last twelve years have done for you!

I ask YOU to read this article over, and discuss it with YOUR husbands, fathers and brothers.

YOU cannot vote!

YOUR men folks can!

Get them to vote right!

And see that they get out to vote in the Primaries on June 17th!

That date in history was the battle of Bunker Hill! The first blow struck for liberty in this glorious country of ours.

REMEMBER THE DATE, and see that HE gets to the voting place to strike another blow for freedom!

In closing I ask every MAN of no matter what political party, to look me in the eye, and put his hand in mine, and join me in the fight of making the high office of Sheriff of Knox county a CLEAN OFFICE.

Respectfully yours,

W. O. NORWOOD.

FAMOUS OLD TENDER

Lighthouse Steamer Armeria Goes to Pieces on Alaskan Rocks.

After many years of service, the old lighthouse tender Armeria, formerly a frequent visitor on the Maine coast, has gone to pieces on the Alaskan rocks. A number of years ago, before she began service on the Pacific, the steamer often came into Rockland harbor and will be remembered by many old-time waterfronters here.

She struck on the rocks near Cape Hinchinbrook and there began to pound to pieces under the first onslaught of the waves. The 32 persons on the tender were rescued by the steamship Admiral Sampson and were taken to Cordova. Among these were seven officers, 24 men and one survivor of the crew of the lost barge Haydn Browne.

The Armeria was the largest tender in the lighthouse service.

SUCCESSFUL CONFERENCE

Lincoln Association of Congregational Churches Met in Warren.

The annual meeting of the Lincoln association of Congregational churches and ministers met with the church in Warren, June 4 and 5. In addition to the careful preparation which the good people of Warren had made for the success of the gathering, ideal weather ruled during the sessions. Delegates from the east came by trolley, while the morning train brought a goodly number from the west. Some two score or more gathered to grace the occasion.

The devotional exercises were all under the direction of the Rev. J. H. Wilkins, of Thomaston. Rev. O. W. Folsom, of Bath, performed in a very acceptable manner the duties of moderator, while the office of scribe was filled by Rev. R. L. Sheaff, of Newcastle. On the music side, Mr. Wilkins had the assistance of a large chorus in the evening and also the contribution of two pleasing numbers by Miss Grace Walker.

The general theme was "Efficiency in Church Work." The various papers and discussions were of a high order.

Rev. W. H. Mousley, of Rockland, opened the program proper by paying a compliment to the program itself, and then proceeded to define "Efficiency," and to discuss, "Denominational efficiency. Has the commission on polity found it?"

"The Efficient Church Organization," was the next topic, handled well by Rev. H. A. Lincoln, of Wiscasset. He showed how necessary to good work was a wise correlation of the various departments of church life.

"Efficiency in Sunday School Work," thoroughly discussed by Mr. W. A. Guild, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Bath. Every father and mother, as well as Sunday school worker should have heard this able paper.

A very important item of the program was "Efficiency in Finance." Mr. G. H. Gardner, of Thomaston, gave a very timely paper on the subject. The esteemed pastor of the church in Camden, Rev. L. D. Evans, gave a bright, helpful, thought-provoking definition of "The Efficient Pastor."

The association was fortunate in having the annual sermon assigned to Rev. G. M. Woodwell, of South Bristol. It was a fitting climax to the afternoon discussions.

The sermon was followed by the communion. Rev. A. J. McLeod, assisted by Rev. O. W. Folsom, administered the rite.

At the evening service, a brief but good program of music was given, reference to which has already been made. The Rev. R. H. Carey, of Baptist church, in humorous and serious vein, brought the community greetings to the association.

The moderator, Rev. O. W. Folsom, gave a timely, thoughtful, sane and inspiring address upon "The Child and Worship."

The moving pictures idea was used with great success by the genial secretary of the A. M. A., Rev. George H. Guttererson, of Boston. From Alaska to the Southland, over the wind-swept prairie Mr. Guttererson took his audience with great ease.

Wednesday morning found a goodly number present. It was voted to accept the invitation from South Bristol for next year.

Rev. R. L. Sheaff presented an earnest paper upon "Efficiency in Benevolence," urging thoughtfulness and generosity. Rev. C. M. Gates, of Portland, of state committee on benevolence, followed Mr. Sheaff upon the appropriation plan. He gave very clear explanations of its work and had encouraging reports.

The Woman's Hour was in charge of Mrs. H. W. Webb, of Warren. Miss M. Grace Walker added to the occasion by singing with good effect an appropriate song. Mrs. W. B. Johnson, of Portland, was the speaker. In a very interesting and helpful manner, she made clear the opportunity of service by women in the matter of giving. A very good idea of correlation was presented in the floor plan of a house, each room representing a society. Mrs. G. M. Woodwell was chosen president; Mrs. Warren, of Woolwich, secretary and treasurer.

This closed the regular session. The attendance was large and enthusiastic at all sessions. The women of Warren sustained their well earned reputation as adepts in the culinary art.

Resolutions of appreciation were past, farewells were said, and the line of visitors filed out, to go their several ways, and a new association year was begun.

"PLANT MORE POTATOES"

State Dairy Instructor Gupitell Believes Proposition Good.

State Dairy Instructor W. T. Gupitell believes that the farmers should plant more potatoes, this year, than they did during the past year. "I do not believe in plunging in this matter," said he to a reporter, "but I do think that the farmers who are properly equipped for it a reasonable increase in the yield will bring a satisfactory financial return. For instance, where a farmer had 10 acres in potatoes last year let him try 12 this year and the farmer who had five acres last year raise seven this year."

He points out that the potato crop in several of the Southern states has been practically a failure and that in several of the middle Atlantic states a smaller amount of seed has been bought than last year. Reports from Arostook indicate that if the farmers in that section plant to their limit there will not be over a 10 per cent increase, so that the farmers in other sections of the state can make a conservative increase without gutting the market and with the present prospects for good potato prices he argues that such an increase can hardly fail to be profitable.

Rheumatism Yields to the Great Kidney Remedy.

I have been troubled with rheumatism for the last five years. Suffered with much pain in the limbs, back and feet and my joints have been badly swollen. Also suffered from constipation. Besides having a regular physician, I had tried every remedy without receiving the least benefit until I accidentally came across a bottle of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. I began taking it, never thinking it would help me, but must acknowledge it has done wonders for me. Have taken more than a dozen bottles and feel that it has been a God-send to me. I am recommending it to all my friends. Yours very truly, Timely Advice On How To Preserve Inner Tubes.

When fitting an inner tube it is a good plan to dust a small quantity of talc or French chalk inside the envelope. This is sufficient to cover the interior surface is all that is required. Too much talc, says a tire expert, gradually accumulating into solid lumps is a frequent cause of punctures. On the other hand insufficient talc will not prevent the inner tube from sticking to the envelope.

Inner tubes should always be perfectly clean and dry when fitting. Even the slightest moisture should be avoided. It is a common practice to lay a tube on the step of the car or even on the ground previous to fitting. This is a very expensive habit. There is always a place to hang the tube where it will be free from moisture or dust. Hang it over a side lamp or tire holder but never lay it down where it will come in contact with foreign and injurious matter.

Inner tubes should always be carried in water-proof bags such as can be bought at any garage for a quarter. They should never be kept in the original cardboard boxes, says the Michelin Man. These boxes are sufficient for the garage but not for storing tubes kept in a car. Water-proof bags keep the tubes away from water, oil and grease, but are not intended to protect the tubes from sharp tools. Always keep spare tubes in bags and keep the bags away from metal objects.

BACK FROM MINNEAPOLIS

L. S. Robinson Talks Interestingly of the Great Methodist Conference.

Lorenzo S. Robinson is home from the quadrennial general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church in Minneapolis fully convinced that it was the most remarkable month he has ever spent, and that the conference, with its 819 delegates, was the greatest evangelical gathering of modern times. When it comes to a description of the proceedings he feels the poverty of words, but the many who have talked with him about the conference have been mightily interested in his report.

Bishop Burt, who presided over the East Maine Conference sessions in this city last year, presided over the Rockland delegation in the big gathering and they had several pleasant meetings. Bishop Quayle also had a very cordial greeting from Mr. Robinson.

Two former Rockland friends were visited by Mr. Robinson during his stay in Minneapolis. One was Mrs. Addie Keating Norris, formerly Addie Foster, who is very pleasantly located at Champlin, 17 miles from Minneapolis. She is a widow and lives with her mother, who is a woman of remarkable activity in spite of her four-score years.

Mr. Robinson also had the pleasure of meeting Charles Foster, brother of Mrs. Norris, who has an attractive home in Minneapolis, and a fine salary as manager of the Realty Storage Co. He has been with the concern 12 years.

To the average man though not at all interested in the church the General Conference must have been an interesting event because of its cosmopolitan character. There was the Chinaman direct from the heart of the celestial empire. The marvel of modern times was to see a Chinese lady with a degree from an American medical school sitting as a delegate in this great body. There was the tall slender turbaned figure from India, black men from the heart of Africa, big, broad chested representatives from Moscow with high foreheads, a German millionaire and men from the flocks and mountains of Norway. In fact the ends of the earth had gathered.

Then it was a representative gathering. There were several governors, judges of supreme courts, congressmen, Senators, lawyers of National fame like Dean Rogers of the Yale law school, college presidents and professors in large numbers, men engaged in business who always think in large figures; farmers as well as almost every other vocation were represented. There was a goodly number of ladies present, chief among whom was Mrs. Katherine Lint Stevenson of Massachusetts, a prominent worker of the W. C. T. U. Aside from the regular delegates there were hundreds of interested persons from Maine to California, some of whom paid as high as $300 a box for the month of May that they might see and hear the Conference.

These men were there because they loved their church, many of them had incomes yearly into the hundreds of thousands yet they worked from 8 o'clock in the morning till 12 and at night as one of them said with a smile, for $2 a day. These men had to work during the month as few of them do at home but they did it cheerfully for the church. More than half the delegates were new men and some of them had been elected because they were "progressive," but in spite of this the body was very conservative. However the tendency was to move on and the church is trying to adjust herself to new conditions.

The Episcopal church had less to say at this conference about its origin and was more concerned about its destiny than ever before. The storm centers of the Conference were the Episcopacy and the much debated amendment clause. The Episcopacy is an American addition to the Methodist church for neither the old mother church in England nor the Methodist church in Canada have bishops and there are a number of thoughtful men who seem to think that it ought to be modified here. The retirement of three men practically against their wills indicates the temper of the Conference. Hereafter they will be asked to report their work to the General Conference, something they have never done before. They were also limited in their activities to a certain section of the country, so that a man will not be brought from the Pacific coast to the Atlantic to preside over two conferences. These conferences, adjoining the residence of the nearest bishop will be under his control except for a month before and after the Conference if presided over by another bishop.

There was a loud call for a negro bishop but it was found under the present constitution that he could not be elected, hence an amendment will be introduced making it possible to elect a bishop for races. The tendency in the church is to restrict more and more the autonomy of the present Episcopal system. The amendment clause remains as it is now, in spite of the fact that the bishops unanimously recommend that it be stricken out. By far the larger majority of the American delegates favored this, it was the urgent plea of the negro delegates and of the missionaries from foreign lands that finally carried the day. The debate lasted two days, and all the phases were carefully discussed. It was here that the missionaries and the negro constituency declared that it would work untold harm to their

Nervous? Thin? Pale?

Are you easily tired, lack your usual vigor and strength? Then your digestion must be poor, your blood must be weak, your nerves must be weak. You need a strong tonic. You need Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only Sarsaparilla entirely free from alcohol. We believe your doctor will endorse these statements. Ask and find out.

If you think constipation is of trifling consequence, just ask your doctor. He will disabuse you of that notion in no time. "Correct it at once!" he will say. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. A mild liver pill, all vegetable.

people to strike this out for at the present time it was a great restraint upon these classes. There were many men who came prepared to do all they could to remove this cause that they were willing to leave it there since it seemed to have a wholesome effect on certain races and peoples.

The leaders for removal were Dr. J. R. Day and Mrs. Katherine Lint Stevenson.

The tendency of the Conference to work and work hard, is shown by the fact that when adjournment finally came the desk had been entirely cleared of documents and business.

No one incident made a greater impression than the last day when the chairman announced that a person, who insisted upon complete secrecy as to his identity had given $50,000 for conference claimants.

Mr. Robinson traveled in company with Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Hatch, Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Haskell, Mr. Hunter of Bangor, Rev. Carl N. Garland of Rockland, Rev. F. Paladino of the Bucksport district, and Lester Strout of Millbridge.

At Toronto Messrs. Robinson, Garland and Paladino left the party for a side-trip to Niagara Falls, which famous resort they remained a day and a half, rejoining the party at Chicago.

Mr. Robinson was half minded to visit Washington and Philadelphia on his way home, but when he arrived at the station to purchase his ticket he bought one straight for Rockland. The longing for home had triumphed over the desire for further sight-seeing.

MAKES WORK EASIER

Rockland People Are Pleased to Learn How It Is Done

It's pretty hard to attend to duties with a constantly aching back; With annoying urinary disorders. Doan's Kidney Pills have made work easier.

So thousands have gratefully testified. They're for bad backs. They're for weak kidneys. Rockland people gladly recommend Doan's.

C. Ries E. Staples, 18 Gay St. Pl., Rockland, Me., says: "My first experience with Doan's Kidney Pills took place about nine months ago, when I was having a bad time with my kidneys. I could hardly get around to attend to my work, in fact, had to lay off for some time, owing to pains in my back. Sometimes the kidney secretions were profuse, then again the flow was scanty, and the secretions filled with sediment. One of my relatives advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I got a supply. I soon found they were helping me, and it was not long before I was well. I believe Doan's Kidney Pills to be the best kidney medicine on the market, and I advise anyone suffering from this complaint to give them a trial."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

IS SOMETHING FIERCE

Costs More to Live This Month Than Any Time Since Civil War—The Fishermen.

A New York despatch dated June 3 says:

"It costs more to live this month of June, 1912, than ever before in the history of the United States except perhaps, during war times. Prices were high a year ago, but today they are on the average nearly 10 per cent higher, according to trade authority quotations.

"Food products are the highest on record. Meat, eggs, butter, fish, potatoes, coffee, tea, sugar, salt, molasses, rice, beans and peas have averaged 22 per cent higher; wheat, corn, oats, flour, barley, etc., 33 per cent higher.

"Fruits are the only good things to eat that have grown cheaper during the last twelve months, but they are still higher than 1910. Leather products cost 12 per cent and chemicals and drugs 13 per cent more than a year ago. Textile goods, however, are a trifle cheaper.

"The average increase in food products is nearly 20 per cent which means that the housewife will pay $6 to fill a market basket that only cost her $5 to fill in June, 1911; in other words $1 will buy only five-sixths as much as it did a year ago.

"The biggest advances have been in meat products—beef, 26 per cent; hog products 40 per cent and mutton over 50 per cent. Dealers say the increase to last year's poor hay crop and the general high cost of animal provender. Poor crops are also held responsible for dearer breadstuffs. Economists differ as to the reasons for the general upward tendency of all commodities during recent years, which has been world wide."

"Business is very dull in sardine circles," writes an Exporter, correspondent, "and all indications point toward a very light pack. None of the plants are working steadily and several of the larger factories have not opened at all this season. Fish are becoming very scarce, the June run of herring not having yet put in its appearance and all signs point towards a scarcity of fish this season. Old fishermen who have made a careful study of these waters claim that there is always a scarcity of small herring after a season when the fish are caught in unusual quantities, as was the case last year, and this being the case the pack this year will be very small and the American sardine will be a scarce article during the winter of 1912 and 1913. Those having any goods on hand in this line are not making any effort to dispose of the same at the prevailing price, preferring to hold the goods for the increase in price which is sure to follow a shortage in the pack."

Rockport Y. M. C. A. Boys Will Go Into Camp for Ten Days—Other Y. M. C. A. News.

It was definitely decided last week to hold a summer camp for the boys of Rockport and Camden during the last ten days of this month, going into camp on June 21 and returning July 1st. Owing to the lack of time the only announcement that will be made is this through the courtesy of the press. Briefly the plan is as follows:

The object is to provide healthful and helpful recreation, and at the same time to cultivate many Christian character. This is accomplished through the various activities of the camp such as boating, bathing, baseball, athletic and aquatic contests, fishing, woodcraft, nature study, the performance of the simple duties about camp, Bible study and the personal contact with Christian leaders. Secretaries Berry and Taylor of the Rockport-Camden Y. M. C. A. will have charge of the camp. Mr. Berry has had two years' experience in charge of such a camp and Mr. Taylor is familiar with outdoor life.

The exact location of the camp will be determined, but will be either on one of the islands in the bay or at Lake Megunticook. This matter will be decided before the end of the month and anyone interested may find out by calling the Y. M. C. A. by phone.

The boys will live in waterproof canvas tents and a large mess tent will be permitted three times each day, under supervision. Care is taken to guard against accidents. Fishing may be indulged in by those who care for this sport. The nightly campfire appeals to a fellow's sense of duty and these are jolly times indeed. Opportunity will be sought to instruct the boys in caring for themselves when out in the open and their religious life will be cared for with a short chapel service, with Bible study each morning after breakfast. A brief service around the campfire closes the day. Plain, wholesome, well cooked food will be provided. Each boy will be expected to care for his share of the tent he occupies and to do cheerfully the few camp duties that may fall to his lot. The rules are few and pertinent.

No firearms allowed.

Swimming permitted only at regular hours and then under supervision. Boats to be used only by permission of camp leaders.

The cost will be $6 for the ten days' trip, including board, use of boats, transportation and all else pertaining to the camp proper. This sum must be paid on or before June 20.

The camp is open to any boy in either Camden or Rockport, without regard to race or creed, whether a member of the Y. M. C. A. or not. Application must be made on blanks provided by and handed or mailed to Mr. Berry or Mr. Taylor, accompanied by a deposit of $1 on or before June 17. This deposit to be applied on account and forfeited if the applicant withdraw his name or fail to appear in camp. The approval of a parent or guardian is required in each case.

Campers should wear everyday clothes. Take a heavy woolen blanket, a small pillow, a suit of underwear, a pair of socks, a handkerchief, a toothbrush, heavy shoes, sneakers, sweater, bath and hand towels, soap (in box), handkerchiefs, brush and comb, tooth brush and powder, swimming trunks and flippers. Other things may be taken, but campers are advised to travel light. Pack all in a strong wooden box about 30 inches long by 18 wide by 15 deep, provided with a hinged cover and a padlock and to keys. One key is to be given to camp director in case other is lost.

EVERY LOOKING WOMAN

Wants to Know How to Avoid Appearing Old Before Her Time.

Some women always wear a worn, first look. It is the outward sign of nervousness with its accompaniment of worry, headache and sleeplessness. It is useless to tell some women to rest. Circumstances will not permit. But it is always possible to build up the strength to meet the strain.

Overwork seldom kills. Worry often does. If you would keep the worn look from your face strengthen your system with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and do not worry. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a blessing to women. They preserve the beauty that health alone can give, the youthful brightness of eye, the color in cheeks and lips that comes alone from rich, red blood.

Last Saturday afternoon nine members of the woman's Christian Temperance Union, together with Mrs. R. C. Hall, president of the Rockland Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and Mrs. E. S. Ufford, president of the Knox County Christian Temperance Union, visited the high school and in behalf of the local Union presented to the school a large picture of Miss Frances Willard. The presentation speech was made by Mrs. Sara Bramhall, president of the local Union, who called upon Mrs. Ufford and Mrs. Hall for remarks. They went to the grammar school, where a similar service was performed. At the latter school, the 8th Grade, under the efficient leadership of Miss Elvira Gardiner, sang two selections in a very creditable manner. The principals of both schools thanked the ladies in behalf of their schools and promised to give the picture a prominent place on the wall of their rooms.

In Social Circles

The arrival and departure of guests during the vacation season is of interest both to them and their friends. We are glad to print such items of social news and will thank our friends to supply us with information in this connection.

Charles W. Kallio, historian of the class of 1912, Rockland high school, has been severely ill for the past two weeks, and it is doubtful if he will be able to take part in the commencement exercises Friday night.

Miss Katherine Johnson and seven members of last year's Senior cooking class had a reunion picnic at Oakland Park last Friday evening. The members present were Ogarita Rose, Evelyn Snow, Sarah Pettie, Bessie Healey, Ida Carey, Frances Haley and Georgia Kosuth. They were very happy and not forgotten the valued instruction they received from Miss Johnson was evident from the tempting viands which the several picnic baskets yielded.

Forrest May is home from the Good Will School at Hineley, Mass., this week.

Carl Blackington is home from the University of Maine at Bangor. The Pearson family of Brooklyn are occupying their cottage at Bay Point. In the many years that they have been coming here they never got quite such a shivery reception as the one accorded them by the Weather Bureau Sunday night. The Masons are also occupying their cottage at Bay Point.

Friends in this city of Miss E. Louise Heat of Belfast will be pleased to learn that she recently graduated with high honors from the School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. Miss Heat was one of three to receive honorable mention in the general course and one of two to receive honorable mention for metal work. She has been president of her class for two years and is a member of the Students' Club of Boston.

Helen S. Vining has returned from a short visit to Vinhaven and North Haven, where she was pleasantly entertained by Capt. and Mrs. Frank Rossiter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hewitt have returned from Boston, where they spent several days with their son, Clarence.

Augustus Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Clifford were pleasantly entertained Sunday at the home of Mrs. Henry Payson, Beauchamp Point.

Mrs. Esther Davis of Belfast has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Thorndike.

Richard H. Rice and family of Lynn are to sail June 14 for a summer abroad.

Harry S. Pearsons of Bridgeport, Conn., was in the city over Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Henry Pearsons. Mr. and Mrs. Pearsons are to spend the summer in Europe.

Miss Georgia McLaughlin is visiting her parents, Walker place. She will return to New York the last of July for rehearsals.

Miss Mabel Porter has arrived from Brooklyn for the summer vacation.

Walter Bird is home from the University of Maine.

Mrs. B. F. Cushman arrived Tuesday from Brooklyn. She will spend the summer at her home, 9 Maverick street.

Miss Annabelle Hurd has been spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Mildred Pierson, at Martinsville.

B. Walker McKee, state lecturer, was a guest at Warren Gardner's last week, when he was making a trip through the county.

Mrs. S. E. Taylor of Portland is visiting Mrs. Rhodes, and calling on other friends in this city.

Mrs. C. S. Keen of Boston is in the city for the summer, staying at 37½ Limerock street.

Hudson Thorndike of Boston has been exchanging greetings with old friends along the street the past few days.

Mrs. James Libby, who has been a guest of William Packard, Nettie Packard and Mrs. Georgia Barrows for two weeks, has returned to her home in St. Stephen, N. B. She was accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Georgia Barrows, who goes for the benefit of her health.

Mrs. Judson Alden of Union was a guest recently of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alden, T. street.

O. B. Veinott and niece, Mrs. Minnie Armstrong, and Mr. and Mrs. John King and family are satisfied that they had Sunday the first clambake of the season.

William Bird is home for a few days from Massachusetts Institute of Technology where he graduated last week. He leaves Saturday for Port Credit, near Toronto, where he will be in the employ of a civil engineering contractor.

Mr. and Mrs. Moran Furbish of Attleboro Falls, Mass., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Spear.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Goudy celebrated the first anniversary of their wedding Saturday evening. The occasion was also Mr. Goudy's birthday, and there was a birthday cake bearing a number of candles equivalent to their winters and summers. With lunch and games a very pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Healey are in the city on a week's visit, in the course of which they will attend the commencement exercises of Rockland high school. Mr. Healey's nephew, William S. Healey, is valedictorian.

Jack Glover is home from the University of Maine, and has employment at the Rockland Garage, with a prospect of driving a car during the vacation. A college mate, Bartlett Barbour of Chicago, is his guest.

Much sympathy is felt in this city over the death at Camden of Mrs. Willard C. Pooler. During her residence here some years ago Mrs. Pooler endeared herself to a wide circle, notably among musical people.

MRS. E. D. GRAVES

The death of Mrs. Julia C. Graves is mourned by a large circle of Rockland friends and neighbors. She fell asleep after a lingering illness of nearly six months, on the morning of June 7. Mrs. Graves was born Oct. 3, 1841, the daughter of Archibald G. and Angelica Branton Spear, and married E. D. Graves of this city. She is survived by two sons, Caroline, widow of the late Senator W. P. Frye of Lewiston, and Miss Emeline E. Spear of Rockland; and one brother, William E. Spear of Boston. At the funeral services held Monday afternoon the bearers were her grand-nephews, William H. John H. Thomas C. and Donald C. White of Lewiston.

WE take pleasure in extending to you the services of an expert corsetiere from the designing rooms of Redfern Corsets, who will be ready to advise you on corset fashion and give personal fittings from

June 10th to June 15th

The new Redfern models are carefully designed to accord with the season's style in dress. Although very durable and firm, these corsets are so light, flexible and soft that they will fit you as a part of the body itself, delineating the beautiful natural lines of the figure, and affording that suppleness and poise which modern styles and comfort demand.

NEW EMPIRE THEATRE

One of the finest vaudeville shows ever given at the Empire is what the people said of the new bill at the Empire yesterday. Heading the big bill is the famous Banks-Brazeale Musical Duo, which carries special scenery and beautiful costumes, and play on all kinds of musical instruments, even their own piano. This is without any question one of the finest musical acts ever in Rockland, and so well were they received yesterday at all three shows that this act will draw big houses the next two days.

Another popular act is that offered by Prof. Robin, the comedy juggler, an act that has plenty of good laughter from start to finish. It is a great show and one that will be well worth your time.

Thursday there will be the famous Anderson Twins and Laura Ordway, the funny suffragette, a big hit, especially with the ladies, while the men will also have to sit up and take notice. Manager Eugley has made arrangements to play the greatest and only big circus that will be seen in Rockland this season, the Buffalo and Pawnee Bill greatest wild west and far east circus on earth, 5000 feet of moving pictures, 1500 horses, men and women, just as seen in the big open arena. Watch for the dates.

ELMWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Crie and family of Rockland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lampson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Moody of Camden were guests of her mother, Mrs. William Newbert Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Mink of Shepherd Hill were at Chester Butler's recently.

Eddie Jacobs of Burketville has been pressing hay in this vicinity.

Chester Butler has purchased a fine pair of horses weighing 2800.

Ed Butler is making extensive repairs on his house.

A. T. Clifford of Glen Cove has green peas in blossom.

ROCKLAND THEATRE

New Acts Today Will Delight Theatre Goers.

It's another big and elegant bill they are offering now, and one that gave marked satisfaction to yesterday's audience. The present bill of Keith's high class vaudeville and exclusive pictures are all of the distinctive class, each one a feature, and on the whole an entertainment of much merit. Just like the program you find at the Rockland Theatre, Ward & Culhane, who presented a hodge-podge of "Ethiopian mirth and music," are the real boys with their feet; their act was one of those that gave full satisfaction to the large audience, and rounds of applause greeted them.

Another interesting feature is that of Billy and Maud Keller, who hand out a variety of smiles, grins, giggles and laughs offering "The Matrimonial Agent." It is a real comedy skit, with plenty of merit that runs about 15 minutes of clean up-to-date fun.

A real lot of clean up-to-date pictures today, and a new bill begins tomorrow.

A special secured feature bill to begin next Thursday includes a dramatic sketch presented by Charles Keane & Company. The vehicle which will introduce this coterie of talented players being Charles Doty's successful playlet, "Sheriff Bob." Much special scenery, mechanical and electrical effects are carried for the embellishment of this fine act which the Portland Press pronounced the equal of any dramatic sketch given on the stage of Keith's Theatre in that city, at the time of its production there a few weeks ago. Surrounding this big feature will be one of the comedy kind presented by Jack Dresdner and Miriam Prince, the Band Box cutup and the female Paderewski in a comedy skit of 18 minutes of songs, comedy and music. The above bill will mark another big drawing card for the Rockland Theatre goers.

There will be a demonstration of Johnson's Wood Dye at the Rockland Hardware Co.'s store, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, who will give free instruction in the art of wood finishing.

School League's Last Week

One More Victory Will Assure Rockland High the Pennant—Still Possible for Thomaston to Win It, and Camden to Tie for It.

Rockland's victory at Newcastle, and Thomaston's defeat at Camden, Saturday, gave Rockland pennant stock a decided boost. The home team has only two more games to play, and if it defeats Thomaston at Thomaston this afternoon as it easily expects to, the championship token will flutter on the Broadway ground next season. On the other hand if the unexpected happens, and Rockland loses today, there will be such a contest between Rockland and Camden next Saturday as the fans will long remember. The possibilities of the League may now be summed up as follows:

Rockland High can win the pennant by defeating Thomaston today or Camden next Saturday. By losing both games the result would be a tie for first place.

Thomaston High can still win the pennant providing it wins its remaining three games and Rockland loses

The Rockland Y. M. C. A. Junior baseball team was again victorious over Rockport Saturday by a score of 13 to 8. This makes the third successive victory by the Rockland team, which defeated Owl's Head 10 to 2, and Rockport in their first game 6 to 4.

C. T. Copeland is pursuer on the steamer Sieur De Monts, where he has served the past two seasons. He is succeeded as baggage master on the Maine Central train by H. W. Merry, and Mr. Merry is succeeded on Conductor Tainter's train by Harry Hanscom.

Camden's Baserunning Carnival

two, and it can tie for the pennant if it wins the three and Rockland loses one.

Camden High can tie for first place by defeating Rockland next Saturday, providing Rockland loses in Thomaston today.

Vinalhaven High's best stunt will be to tie for third place. Lincoln Academy remains in undisputed possession of the cellar championship. The standing:

Camden 10; Thomaston 4.

Thomaston High held the lead until the 6th inning at Camden Saturday and then flew into an infinitesimal number of pieces. The sturdy Megunticook lads began to sweat the ball all over the field, and once they hit the sphere they seemed possessed of charmed lives. They are naturally good base-runners, but on this afternoon they flew around the sacks with an almost reckless disregard of the men that Thomaston had stationed there to prevent such actions. Had the visitors been playing anything like their game Camden never would have scored 10 runs, but it would still have been a winner by virtue of its superior batting and "base-running." Whatever position the Camden team finally lands in this season its ability in those two directions will not be belittled by the close observer.

Allen was the star batsman of the day, hitting safely five times for a total of six bases. Hardy's two doubles were another factor not to be overlooked. A. Frye, though playing out of position, was a star performer at short.

Thomaston made 10 hits hits off Trulan, but they were widely scattered, except in the third inning, and in the pinches the Thomaston men were fooled by that deceptive drop. Jones headed the batting list for the visitors, but will never get into the hall of fame on the strength of his first base work that day. As it is hardly fair to single him out for censure it may be said that every man on the Thomaston team had an error charged against him except Burnham, who had but one chance, and McDonald, who handled all of his seven chances very nicely. It was an off day for Thomaston, and all teams have off days.

Rockland 14; L. A. 11.

Rockland High made nine scores in the 3d inning at Newcastle Saturday, and to that fact must be attributed its victory over Lincoln Academy. The home team rallied after that catastrophe and was filling up the breach so rapidly that it was deemed advisable to substitute Rokes for Campbell in the last inning in order to prevent a garish finish.

Lincoln Academy outbatted and outfielded Rockland, but the wildness of its pitchers, who gave to bases on balls, and the inability to get hits when hits were most needed, more than offset their good work. Several sharp fielding plays saved the day for Rockland, one being Rokes' fine assist from centerfield in a double play with Fuller.

Rockland In War Times

Battle of Fair Oaks, as Described by the Late Henry G. Tibbetts—Federal Troops Elated—Fourth Maine's Losses Were Not Large

The progress of the Civil War, as especially relating to the interests of our own community, is set forth in this series of articles, reproduced from the Rockland Gazette files of the corresponding period in 1862.

Before Richmond, June 9, 1862. As the excitement occasioned by the late battle has subsided, and quiet reigns along the lines, I will give you brief account of the experiences of our brigade and regiment during the battle of Fair Oaks. Early on Saturday morning, May 31, the brigade was put in motion, and we advanced a little more than a mile, so as to be within supporting distance of Gen. Casey's division. We had not even dreamed that a battle would be fought upon that day, and after some shifting about, we at length halted on a field nearby the railroad and pitched our tents.

Scarcely had we got the floors of our tents covered with boughs and leaves, when the sharp volley of musketry opened about a mile away. It was not long after the firing commenced before orders came for Kearney's division to hurry up to check the advancing Confederates. The men fell quickly into line and filed up into the Williamsburg road, past our slight earthworks and thence down through the woods to the railroad.

The soldiers of Gen. Casey's division were retreating in disorder past us, but many of them fell behind the rifle pits to defend them, while a few others were brought into line by the desperate exertions of a number of brave officers.

One little acquainted with war, beholding these discouraged troops rushing towards the Chickahominy with the same doleful story of "cut to pieces," would have supposed that our army had suffered an ignominious defeat, but the firm columns of Heintzelman's corps presented a front the desperate rebels could not cut through, nor press backward.

During the remainder of the day our brigade occupied different positions in the fields and woods contiguous to the railroad, but was not brought into action. When night closed the bloody strife, the enemy held the ground occupied by Gen. Casey's troops in the morning, but they had been effectually checked. There was some mistake in regard to the position and disposition of Gen. Birney's brigade during the afternoon, but certain it was that when the sun had gone down the brigade was three-fourths of a mile in advance of the position it was expected to sustain and therefore it was ordered to fall back and rest for the night. Gen. Birney, however, did not like the idea of this retrograde movement and remained at his advance position during the night.

The next morning Gen. Birney was relieved of his command, and Col. Ward of the 38th New York, was placed in command of the brigade.

At an early hour the rebels renewed the battle, and upon the conflict became general all along the lines. At this time the disposition of our brigade was as follows: 38th and 40th New York regiments and 3d Maine were stretched out in the rear of a fence at the edge of the woods, on the southern side of the railroad, while the 4th Maine was stationed farther out on the road towards Richmond. Companies G, H, I, and K were acting as pickets, still further out, and were the first of our regiments to open fire.

Our men were specially favored by their position here, as the railroad had been constructed in such a manner as to form a breastwork, from behind which our men could fire and yet be shielded from the enemy's fire. The 4th poured a continual shower of bullets into the road through which the rebels were making their way, and with such effect that though the enemy reached the edge of the forest they could not leave the protection of the trees.

While this was going on, the Confederates attempted by a flank movement to cut off the retreat of the troops on the railroad, but the danger of such a movement had been seen by Col. Ward, as you have already noticed by the disposition of the brigade, and when the rebel flankers advanced up through the woods on the left, and were within 60 yards, our troops rose up, poured in a well-directed volley and charged down upon the enemy. The rebels broke and fled in dismay, leaving the ground strewn with their dead and wounded. Still our men charged on, making the air ring with their wild shrieks and cheers, which alone were enough to frighten the enemy from the field. Across the swamp and over the slashing the rebels fled, the Union troops in pursuit. At length the command of halt from the gallant Col. Ward rang along the lines, and the gray coat-tails of the rebels, flying in the wind, disappeared as they went through the woods at a 240 rate, towards Richmond.

This was a splendid charge, and the 3d Maine regiment covered themselves with glory, but many of their brave fellows fell and their loss is now stated at 11 killed and 62 wounded. Among the latter is Capt. Wm. L. Richmond, formerly of Rockland. As it was not the intention of our commanders to advance upon Richmond at that time, no pursuit of the retreating rebels was made beyond the limits of the first position of our advance on Saturday morning. Showers of bullets flew over the 4th Maine and into the left companies, but little damage was done, however, compared with the loss of other regiments about us. The following are our casualties:

D. L. Knowles, Co. I, of Winterport, killed instantly.
Augustus Parker, Co. K, of Belfast, killed instantly.
George Thomas, Co. C, slightly wounded.
Joel Jackson, Co. H, slightly wounded.
George W. Steele, Co. H, slightly wounded.
Simon Higgins, Co. H, wounded.
Lieut. J. M. Fowler, Co. I, slightly wounded.
Sanford Colson.
Seth M. Young, Co. K, wounded.
John Courier, Co. K, wounded.
All our officers and men displayed coolness and courage on the battlefield, and Col. Walker stood in an exposed position upon the railroad and directed the fire of his men, with perfect indifference to the balls that were flying about him. For three days after the battle our regiments occupied this position, the rations being cooked in camp and brought out to them. The rebels wisely concluded not to—or could not—renew the attack, and the recent battle must have been indeed discouraging to them, and by it the fate of Richmond has been sealed. I have passed over many portions of the battleground, where the fighting raged the fiercest, and in every case have I found the bodies of the rebels to greatly outnumber those of the Union troops.

All men regard this as a brilliant victory, as the fondest hopes of the rebel leaders have been defeated in the battle of Fair Oaks, and it will be difficult to inspire the Confederate soldiers with the same desperate valor that they exhibited here, while they never will have that assurance of victory that they certainly entertained when they made their rush upon our lines. The New York Tribune has been pleased to call it a reverse to our army, but I fail to see it in such a light.

In the fall of Capt. F. M. Smith, the State of Maine has lost one of her bravest and most patriotic sons. His course, since the breaking out of the rebellion has been one of noble generosity and purest patriotism. Forming a fine company of men from his native town, he was elected captain and accepted into the 4th regiment of Maine Volunteers. Careful of his men and often providing for their little wants from his own purse, it is no wonder that he won their love and fondest respect. He was a true philanthropist, and men returned his friendship wherever he went or was placed.

At the memorable battle of Bull Run he first showed his invincibility to fear, and his courage on that occasion has been a theme of praise by all who saw him there. Early last spring he was elected Major of this regiment but declined the proffered honor and accepted a situation as chief of Gen. Berry's staff, with his former rank. In this capacity he went into the desperate battle of Williamsburg, and his gallantry there was brilliant and heroic in the extreme.

He seemed to take no thought of danger, but the discharge of duty to his superior officers and to his country entirely engrossed his whole being. To such brave men as he, is the whole honor of the victory at Williamsburg due. The brigade of Gen. Berry was called up at the last battle before Richmond to repel the advancing legions of the South. Capt. Smith bravely led a regiment in a charge and during the heat of the engagement a rebel ball sped on its cruel errand, carrying death instantaneously, and cutting the brittle thread of life, the spirit of Capt. Edwin Smith fled heavenward from the bloody field of carnage, while his mortal remains were borne by sorrowing commanders, from the scene of action away to the rear. Thus fell one who in the youth and flower of life gave up all for his country's good. But who can find a death more glorious than his? Let his name be ever held in sacred remembrance by the people of his state, and may we all strive to emulate his self-sacrificing and noble example.

The wounded rebels are surprised to find themselves treated so kindly by our men and say they have been favored by many stories of our cruelty to prisoners. In many cases their hearts have been filled with gratitude for the careful attendance and little acts of kindness performed for them by our soldiers and some have even expressed regrets that they ever took up arms against the northern people. I really believe that if some of them could be sent back to their homes, they would do much good towards Unionizing the sentiments of their people.

Our wounded who were in the possession of the rebels through Saturday night, but were retaken by our forces on Sunday, report that they were treated well by the enemy and saw none of the savage cruelty which has been represented to be characteristic of the Southern troops. The Confederate army, to a great extent, is composed of men whose natures are as refined and whose emotions are as tender as our own. They are like the people of the North and South become better acquainted and learn each other's feelings in regard to the question which separates our country, how quickly would they extend the hand of fellowship and brotherly love, and each would say the Lord be praised that our Union has not been dissolved. What we want at this time, are Union men, not radical Abolitionists nor extreme pro-slavery men, for each are alike dangerous to an amicable settlement of our difficulties or the future prosperity of our government.

Within the past five days we have encamped on a pretty wheat field and have enjoyed a perfect rest. The cars run up past us several times a day, bringing us ammunition and provisions for the army, and carrying back sick and wounded soldiers. A number of full regiments have recently arrived from Fortress Monroe, and everything is ready for the reception of the rebels if they choose to attack us. Gen. McLellan has got his spades and picks at work again, and the rebels will shortly be shovelled out of their much beloved Capitol unless they act on the offensive, which we much hope they will do. The weather is fine and cool for June in Virginia, but we have had some very severe rains, which keep the roads in a dreadful condition. The men of our regiment continue to enjoy their general good health, and though our companies are small compared with what they were when we left Rockland, yet the regiment makes a good appearance. We have every reason to hope that the rebel army will be vanquished in the coming battle, and we have every reason to hope that this will be the death blow to the rebellion. H. G. T.
